If the District cancels the offer or the artist's performance at any time prior to the expiration of the offer, prior to the artist's rejection of the offer, or at any time after the artist's acceptance of the offer, the District shall be responsible only for reasonable, documented cancellation fees, penalties, and damages set forth in the artist's executed agreement, provided such amounts are consistent with industry standards and commercially reasonable efforts to mitigate damages have been made by the artist.

This provision shall not apply in the event cancellation is due to force majeure, material breach by the artist or artist's representative, or if information becomes known that the artist's performance is not appropriate for the Fair's programming standards or does not fit within the genre of entertainment that is appropriate for a diverse Fair audience, as reasonably determined by the District.
